HAVE YOU TRIED THESE?

- A little more patience — To overlook and bear up with the things others do and say that irritate me?
 A little more firmness — To continue the work which duty demands and which is often repellent to me?
 A little more humility — To remain at the post at which I find myself and which does not fit in at all with my dreams and plans?
 A little more common sense — To take people as they are, and not as I should like them to be?
 A little more prudence — To bother as little as possible about other people's affairs?
 A little more cheerfulness — So as not to show that I have been hurt?
 A little more unselfishness — In trying to understand the thoughts and feelings of others?
 Above all, a little more prayer — To draw God to my heart?

What If ...

"I can't." "I won't." "I don't." These are the words that keep people from reaching their potential. There's no telling how different this world would be if people throughout the ages would not have lived up to their fullest potential.

Consider this: What if ... Michelangelo said, "I don't do ceilings." David said, "I don't do giants." Michael Jordan said, "I don't do basketball." Neil Armstrong said, "I don't do space." George Washington said, "I don't do revolutions." Henry Ford said, "I don't do cars." Walt Disney said, "I don't do mice." Paul said, "I don't do mission work." Thomas Edison said, "I don't do light bulbs." What if Jesus said, "I don't do crosses."?

Just think what a different world this would be. We all have been blessed because of a few individuals who chose to not to say, "I don't," "I won't," and "I can't."

Now then, what was it you were saying you just can't/won't do? Give it some thought!

MY LORD IS EVERYTHING

He is my water and my bread; He is my life, for I was dead;
 He is my shepherd of lost sheep; He is my guardian while I sleep;
 He is the truth, the living way; He is my light through every day;
 He is my fortress and my rock; He is the door at which I knock;
 He is my refuge from the storm; He is the love that keeps me warm;
 He is the Word, revealing sin; He is the Saviour to all men;
 He is the vine to which I cling; to me, my Lord is everything!
