

He Was Wounded For Our Transgressions

There are six varieties of wounds a person can suffer.

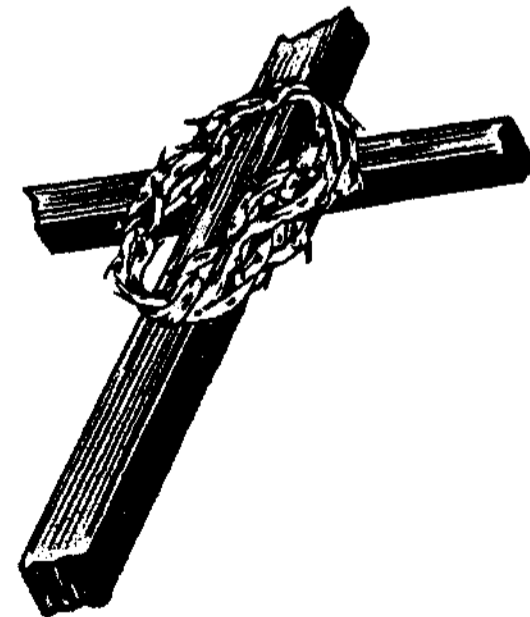

1. Abrasive wound: the skin scraped off. This can result from stumbling, by carrying a rough object, or by a glancing blow. "And he bearing his cross went forth into a place called the place of a skull..." (John 19:17).
2. Confused wound: caused by a heavy blow. "And they smote him on the head with a reed..." (Mark 15:19).
3. Incised wound: produced by a knife, spear, or other sharp instrument. "Then Pilate therefore took Jesus, and scourged him. (John 19:1).
4. Lacerated wound: the flesh is torn open, leaving jagged edges. "I gave my back to the smiters, and my cheeks to them that plucked off the hair: I hid not my face from shame and spitting. (Isaiah 50:6).
5. Penetrating wound: the flesh is pierced through. "Except I shall see in his hands the print of the nails, and put my finger into the print of the nails..." (John 20:25).
6. Punctured wound: made by a pointed or spiked instrument. "But one of the soldiers with a spear pierced his side..." (John 19:34).

Jesus suffered all these wounds. Yes, Jesus suffered real physical pain, but what Jesus suffered physically by itself does not give the power to the cross. Jesus also endured spiritual pain in "becoming sin for us" (2 Corinthians 5:21).

"But he was wounded for our transgressions, he was bruised for our iniquities: the chastisement of our peace was upon him; and with his stripes we are healed." - Isaiah 53:5.

- The Biblical Messenger, 9th & Main Church of Christ, San Angelo, TX

Wounded for me, wounded for me,
 There on the cross He was wounded for me;
 Gone my transgressions, and now I am free,
 All because Jesus was wounded for me.
 Dying for me, dying for me,
 There on the cross He was dying for me;
 Now in His death my redemption I see,
 All because Jesus was dying for me.
 Risen for me, risen for me,
 Up from the grave He has risen for me;
 Now evermore from death's sting I am free,
 All because Jesus has risen for me.
 Coming for me, coming for me,
 One day my Savior is coming for me;
 Then with what joy His dear face I shall see,
 O how I praise Him! He's coming for me.

The cross of Christ reveals man's sin at its worst and God's love at its best.

All Kinds of Surprises in the Bible!

A man was helping his wife with the dishes for the fourth time that week, and he was tired of doing the dishes. "You know," he said, "this isn't really man's work. I'm just trying to be helpful." His wife answered, "You're wrong, and the Bible says so." She then told him to read 2 Kings 21:13, which reads, "I will stretch over Jerusalem the line of Samaria, and the plummet of the house of Ahab: and I will wipe Jerusalem as a man wipeth a dish, wiping it, and turning it upside down." Well, you never know what you may find when you read the Bible do you? There just may be a whole lot more that you never knew was there. It is worth spending time finding out!
