

How Are You Doing?

A common greeting among people today is the phrase, "How are you doing?" It is commonly asked in a concerned, yet light-hearted way. We usually expect the answer, "Fine." We appreciate being asked about our personal welfare. It would do us all good to pause and ask ourselves, "How am I doing?" Maybe some of the following questions will spur your thinking:

ple today is the phrase, "How are you doing?" It is commonly asked in a concerned, yet light-hearted way. We usually expect the answer, "Fine." We appreciate being asked about our personal welfare. It would do us all good to pause and ask ourselves, "How am I doing?" Maybe some of the following questions will spur your thinking:

- Are you rejoicing in the Lord always (Philippians 4:4)?
- Are you busy "making memories" with those precious little children who will someday be "grown and gone" (Proverbs 22:6)?
- Are you wiser as the result of learning the lessons given by that teacher called "Experience" (Proverbs 21:11)?
- Are you wealthier because God has blessed you with skill, wisdom and opportunity (1Corinthians 16:2)?
- Are you nearer to heaven because of the grace of God and your faithfulness to Him (1 Timothy 1:12-15)?
- Are you content in knowing that God will work all things together for your good (Romans 8:28)?
- Are you taking advantage of every opportunity to do good to all men (Galatians 6:10)?
- Are you sowing the seed of the kingdom (Acts 8:4)?
- Are you content with the things that you have (Hebrews 13:5)?
- Are you forgiving others as God has forgiven you (Ephesians 4:32)?
- Are you fervent in your love for your brothers and sisters in Christ (1 Peter 1:22)?
- Are you endeavoring to keep the unity of the Spirit in the bond of peace (Ephesians 4:3)?
- Are you thankful in all circumstances (1 Thessalonians 5:18)?
- Are you trusting in the Lord with all your heart (Proverbs 3:5)?
- Are you looking forward to the coming of Jesus (2 Peter 3:12)?

"For I rejoiced greatly when the brothers came and testified to your truth, as indeed you are walking in the truth" (3 John 3, English Standard Version - ESV).

Have you ever chanced to meet them?
Did they ever call on you?

Are You Lost In The Woulds?

I would go to worship, but it's my day off.
I would go to worship, but I'm too tired.
I would go to worship, but the weather just isn't right.
I would do better, but I have ample time yet.
I would repent of my sins, but I'm no worse than others.
Come out of the woulds and serve the Lord today!
