

A FATHER'S ADVICE

On the birth of his first daughter, Lt. Commander J. P. Carr received a letter of advice from his father: "Teach her as many of the seven thousand words of the English language as you have time to, but be sure she knows that:

- > The greatest word is God;
- > The longest word is Eternity;
- > The swiftest word is Time;
- > The nearest word is Now;
- > The darkest word is Sin;
- > The meanest word is Hypocrisy;
- > The deepest word is Soul."

Just Like You

To get his goodnight kiss he stood
Beside my chair one night
And raised an eager face to me,
A face with love alight.

And so I gathered in my arms
The son God gave to me,
I thanked the lad for being good,
And hoped he'd always be.

His little arms crept 'round my neck,
And then I heard him say
Eight simple words I can't forget,
Eight words that made me pray.

They turned a mirror in my soul,
On secrets no one knew.
They startled me; I hear them yet,
He said, "Dad, I want to be just like you."
