THE UNCERTAINTY OF LIFE

A few weeks ago we were reminded of the horror of the terrorist attacks on America 20 years ago. The following account was condensed from The Review, East Liverpool, OH:

Cathy Salter, 37, of Wellsville, Ohio was killed on September 11, 2001, when a hijacked plane flew into the South Tower of the World Trade Center. United Flight 175 struck the building at the floor level where Cathy worked.

Among the items from Cathy's apartment in New York City and returned to her mother in Wellsville was a slip of paper in Cathy's words. Her Mother said these words were the creed Cathy lived by until the moment she died:

- "The six most important words: I admit I made a mistake.
- The five most important words: You did a good job.
- The four most important words: What is your opinion?
- The three most important words: If you please.
- The two most important words: Thank you.
- The most important word: We.
- The least important word: I."

So live that even the funeral director will be sorry when you die,
