

My Never Again List

- Never again will I say, "I can't," for "I can do all things through Christ which strengtheneth me" (Phi. 4:13).
- Never again will I admit lack, for "my God shall supply all your need according to his riches in glory by Christ Jesus" (Phi. 4:19).
- Never again will I fear, for "God hath not given us the spirit of fear; but of power, and of love, and of a sound mind" (2 Tim. 1:7).
- Never again will I harbor doubt and lack of faith, for "The Lord is my light and my salvation; whom shall I fear?" (Psa. 27:1).
- Never again will I allow the supremacy of Satan over my life, for "greater is he that is in you, than he that is in the world" (1 John 4:4).
- Never again will I admit defeat, for "God, which always causeth us to triumph in Christ, and maketh manifest the savour of his knowledge by us in every place" (2 Cor. 2:14).
- Never again will I lack wisdom, for "If any of you lack wisdom, let him ask of God, that giveth to all men liberally, and upbraideth not; and it shall be given him" (Jam. 1:5).
- Never again will I be worried and frustrated, "Casting all your care upon him; for he careth for you" (1 Pet. 5:7).
- Never again will I be in bondage, for "the Lord is that Spirit: and where the Spirit of the Lord is, there is liberty" (2 Cor. 3:17).

Be Kind

Thomas Baxley

Kindness might be one of the most important traits that is missing in many Christians. Real, biblical kindness isn't about being nice to people you like or to people who are nice to you. Neither is kindness helping people when it is convenient. Going an extra mile (Matthew 5:41) includes doing things for people you may not like and doing tasks you'd rather not do. Loving your neighbor is great, but Jesus told us to love our enemies and pray for those who persecute us (Matthew 5:44). Jesus left us examples by healing someone who was literally out to get Him (Luke 22:51) and later prayed for the forgiveness of those who crucified Him (Luke 23:34). The world does for those who do for them; Christianity is about doing for those who cannot repay (Luke 14:12-14). The world counts the cost and calculates its own benefit before considering helping others; Christians are called to be selfless. The world expects and enjoys being served; Christians are to take joy in serving others (John 13). In a world where you can be anything, be kind and shine the light of Jesus (Matthew 5:14).
