Psalm 23

- 1 The LORD is my shepherd; I shall not want.
- 2 He maketh me to lie down in green pastures: he leadeth me beside the still waters.
- 3 He restoreth my soul: he leadeth me in the paths of righteousness for his name's sake.
- 4 Yea, though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death, I will fear no evil: for thou art with me; thy rod and thy staff they comfort me.
- 5 Thou preparest a table before me in the presence of mine enemies: thou anointest my head with oil; my cup runneth over.
- 6 Surely goodness and mercy shall follow me all the days of my life: and I will dwell in the house of the LORD for ever.

Every day - every night - from the cradle to beyond the grave - all along our pilgrim's journey, until we reach our Heavenly Home, we are somewhere in Psalm 23. We move about, we rest; we are in danger and are protected; we are sad and comforted. We may wander and get lost, but are rescued. We are given food and shelter. All our needs are provided and we share our abundance with others. The Psalmist David had himself been a shepherd, and knew the cares and affections of a good shepherd for his flock. In Psalm 23, sheep represent Christians in the care of a dependable and trustworthy shepherd. Fortunate indeed are all who follow the Good Shepherd.

OUR REFUGE AND STRENGTH

The Lord is our Salvation and our Strength in every fight,
Our Redeemer and Protector, our Eternal Guiding Light.
He has promised to sustain us, He's our Refuge from all harms,
And underneath this refuge are the the Everlasting Arms!
