

Blessings of Worship

First and Second Chronicles offers us several great reminders about what a wonderful blessing worship should be to our lives. Especially right now when our routines have been disrupted, we need to make sure we are participating with heart, soul, mind, and strength.

When the Ark of the Covenant was brought to Jerusalem, David declared a day of thanksgiving (1 Chron. 16:7) and began expressing his gratitude to God for all the different ways that the Lord had blessed His people (1 Chron. 16:18-38). And then Scripture says that David went home to bless his household/family (1 Chron. 16:43).

The time spent together in praise of God should be transforming. Our joy and praise and lifting up of God's holy name should translate into renewed spirits that seek to be blessings to others! Our worship of the Lord together should lead to us being more like the Lord at home!

David gave thanks to God and praised Him along with all the people, then he took those things home to his family. May we all do the same! Whether we gather at the building or utilize technology, let us turn the blessings of worship into blessings for our homes.

The Christian's Calling

Its source is God (Acts 2:39; Hebrews 3:1)

It is characterized by a humble, willing-to-learn attitude (1 Corinthians 1:26-29)

The sacred calling is by means of the gospel (2 Thessalonians 2:14)

Its design is for a holy, worthy life (1 Corinthians 1:2; Ephesians 4:1)

Its direction is upward (Philippians 3:14)

Its sphere of operation is "in Christ" (Philippians 3:14)

The ultimate hope is in a single destiny — heaven (Ephesians 4:4; Colossians 1:5)

2 WORDS

Calvin Coolidge, 30th President of the United States was known as "Silent Cal" because he was a man of few words.

The story is told that once at a dinner party Coolidge was seated next to a young woman who confided that she had bet that she could pry at least three words of conversation from him. Unimpressed, he quietly responded, "You lose."
